‘COUNTRY NOT SEEKING NUCLEAR WEAPON’

Will rebuild nuclear facilities: Iran prez

REUTERS
Dubai, November 2

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities “with greater strength”, Iran’s President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon.

US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran’s nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June.

Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country’s Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran’s nuclear industry.

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the “major incident” as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued.

Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, east-England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King’s Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station.

“We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident,” British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

“A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder.

“Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning,” he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS
London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET to agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers’ group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut.

OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil.

Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG
November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back.

Trump said the US was “wedded” to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan’s new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with “anything.” And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing’s naval activities around the island democracy.

The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years.

“It’s much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations,” Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war.

The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City.

“There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them,” Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem.

Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.

‘COUNTRY NOT SEEKING NUCLEAR WEAPON’

Will rebuild nuclear facilities: Iran prez

REUTERS
Dubai, November 2

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities “with greater strength”, Iran’s President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon.

US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran’s nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June.

Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country’s Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran’s nuclear industry.

MASOUD PEZESHKIAN, PRESIDENT OF IRAN

Destroying buildings and factories will not create a problem for us, we will rebuild and with greater strength

factories will not create a problem for us, we will rebuild and with greater strength,” the Iranian president told state media.

In June, the US launched strikes on Iranian nuclear facilities that Washington says were part of a program geared towards developing nuclear weapons.

Tehran maintains that its nuclear programme is for purely civilian purposes.

“It’s all intended for solving the problems of the people, for disease, for the health of the people,” Pezeshkian said in reference to Iran’s nuclear activities.

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the “major incident” as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued.

Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King’s Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station.

“We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident,” British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

“A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder.

“Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning,” he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS
London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET to agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers’ group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut.

OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil.

Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG
November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back.

Trump said the US was “wedded” to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan’s new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with “anything.” And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing’s naval activities around the island democracy.

The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years.

“It’s much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations,” Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war.

The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City.

“There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them,” Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem.

Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.

'COUNTRY NOT SEEKING NUCLEAR WEAPON' Will rebuild nuclear facilities: Iran prez

REUTERS
Dubai, November 2

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities "with greater strength", Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon. US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran's nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June. Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country's Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran's nuclear industry. "Destroying buildings and factories will not create a problem for us, we will rebuild and with greater strength," the Iranian president told state media. In June, the US launched strikes on Iranian nuclear facilities that Washington says were part of a program geared towards developing nuclear weapons. Tehran maintains that its nuclear programme is for purely civilian purposes. "It's all intended for solving the problems of the people, for disease, for the health of the people," Pezeshkian said in reference to Iran's nuclear activities.

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued. Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station. "We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

"A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder. "Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS
London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET to agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers' group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut. OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil. Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG
November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back. Trump said the US was "wedded" to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan's new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with "anything." And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing's naval activities around the island democracy. The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years. "It's much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations," Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war. The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City. "There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem. Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities "with greater strength", Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon. US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran's nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June. Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country's Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran's nuclear industry. "Destroying buildings and factories will not create a problem for us, we will rebuild and with greater strength," the Iranian president told state media. In June, the US launched strikes on Iranian nuclear facilities that Washington says were part of a program geared towards developing nuclear weapons. Tehran maintains that its nuclear programme is for purely civilian purposes. "It's all intended for solving the problems of the people, for disease, for the health of the people," Pezeshkian said in reference to Iran's nuclear activities.

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued. Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station. "We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

"A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder. "Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS
London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET TO agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers' group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut. OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil. Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defence spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back. Trump said the US was "wedded" to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan's new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with "anything." And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing's naval activities around the island democracy. The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years. "It's much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations," Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war. The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City. "There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem. Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued.

Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station.

"We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

"A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder.

"Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS
London/Moscow,
November 2

OPEC+ IS SET TO agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers' group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut.

OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil.

Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG
November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back.

Trump said the US was "wedded" to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan's new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with "anything." And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing's naval activities around the island democracy.

The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years.

"It's much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations," Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war.

The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City.

"There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem.

Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities "with greater strength", Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon.

US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran's nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June.

Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country's Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran's nuclear industry.

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued.

Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station.

"We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

"A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder.

"Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS
London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET TO agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers' group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut.

OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil.

Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG
November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back.

Trump said the US was "wedded" to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan's new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with "anything." And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing's naval activities around the island democracy.

The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years.

"It's much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations," Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war.

The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City.

"There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem.

Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.

Will rebuild nuclear facilities: Iran prez

REUTERS Dubai, November 2

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities "with greater strength", Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon. US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran's nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June. Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country's Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran's nuclear industry. "Destroying buildings and

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued. Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England. The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station. "We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said. "A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder. "Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET to agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers' group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut. OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil. Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG November 2

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back. Trump said the US was "wedded" to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan's new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with "anything." And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing's naval activities around the island democracy. The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years. "It's much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations," Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war. The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City. "There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem. 2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued. Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England. The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station. "We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said. "A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder. "Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

'COUNTRY NOT SEEKING NUCLEAR WEAPON'

Will rebuild nuclear facilities: Iran prez

REUTERS

Dubai, November 2

TEHRAN WILL REBUILD its nuclear facilities "with greater strength", Iran's President Masoud Pezeshkian told state media on Sunday, adding that the country does not seek a nuclear weapon.

US President Donald Trump has warned that he would order fresh attacks on Iran's nuclear sites should Tehran try to restart facilities that the United States bombed in June.

Pezeshkian made his comments during a visit to the country's Atomic Energy Organization, during which he met with senior managers from Iran's nuclear industry.

"Destroying buildings and

Destroying buildings and factories will not create a problem for us, we will rebuild and with greater strength

factories will not create a problem for us, we will rebuild and with greater strength," the Iranian president told state media.

In June, the US launched strikes on Iranian nuclear facilities that Washington says were part of a program geared towards developing nuclear weapons. Tehran maintains that its nuclear programme is for purely civilian purposes.

"It's all intended for solving the problems of the people, for disease, for the health of the people," Pezeshkian said in reference to Iran's nuclear activities.

2 British nationals in custody over train mass stabbings

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA

London, November 2

TWO PEOPLE REMAIN in life-threatening condition on Sunday after mass stabbings which injured 10 people on a high-speed London-bound train, as British Transport Police ruled out a terrorism link to the "major incident" as counter-terror police engagement was discontinued.

Two UK-born men in their 30s remain in custody after being arrested at the scene of the attack on Saturday night, when armed police stormed the train at Huntingdon station in Cambridgeshire, eastern England.

The train, which had been travelling from Doncaster and was headed to King's Cross station in the UK capital, made the unscheduled stop at Huntingdon after what has been described by eyewitnesses as a bloody rampage on the train minutes after it left nearby Peterborough station. "We declared a major incident yesterday (Saturday) and Counter Terrorism Policing were initially supporting our investigation, however, at this stage there is nothing to suggest this is a terrorist incident," British Transport Police (BTP) Superintendent John Loveless said.

"A 32-year-old man, a black British national, and a 35-year-old man, a British national of Caribbean descent, were both arrested on suspicion of attempted murder.

"Both were born in the UK. They remain in police custody for questioning," he stated.

OPEC+ set to agree to modest oil output hike

REUTERS

London/Moscow, November 2

OPEC+ IS SET TO agree on Sunday on another modest increase in oil output targets, three sources familiar with the talks said, as the producers' group moderates plans to regain market share due to rising fears of a supply glut.

OPEC+ has raised output targets by more than 2.7 million barrels per day — about 2.5% of global supply — since

April, but slowed the pace in October and November from larger increases amid predictions of a looming oversupply. New Western sanctions on

OPEC+ member Russia are adding to challenges in the discussions, as Moscow may struggle to further raise output after the US and Britain imposed new measures on top producers Rosneft and Lukoil.

Eight OPEC+ members — Saudi Arabia, Russia, the United Arab Emirates, Iraq, Kuwait, Oman, Kazakhstan and Algeria — have agreed in principle to increase December output targets by 137,000 barrels per day, the three sources said.

Trump plays nice with Asian allies

BLOOMBERG

AFTER MONTHS OF tariff threats and brow-beating on defense spending, American allies in Asia had ample reason to be wary of President Donald Trump. But he ended up using a three-nation tour of the region to hammer home a clear message: The US still has your back.

Trump said the US was "wedded" to South Korea, addressed some of its concerns about a $350 billion investment pledge and approved its request for nuclear-powered submarines. He told Japan's new Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi that she can ask him for help with "anything." And he avoided watering down the US commitment to Taiwan in a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping, while his defense chief, Pete Hegseth, voiced concerns about Beijing's naval activities around the island democracy.

The US president also sought to mend ties with Southeast Asian nations that have leaned closer toward Beijing as Trump took aim at their economic growth engines — signing trade agreements with Cambodia and Malaysia and frameworks for deals with Thailand and Vietnam. Hegseth, traveling separately in the region, signed a 10-year defence deal with India and announced that military exercises with Cambodia would resume for the first time in eight years.

"It's much better than what I expected — the trust, the friendship and the commitment to enhance relations," Malaysian Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim said of his discussions with Trump, speaking to Bloomberg while displaying a presidential coin given by the US leader moments earlier.

Israeli strike kills 1 in Gaza

AN ISRAELI AIRSTRIKE killed a Palestinian man in the Gaza Strip on Sunday, health authorities said, as Israel and Hamas traded blame for violations of the tenuous truce that has mostly halted two years of war.

The Israeli military said its aircraft had struck a militant who was posing a threat to its forces. Al-Ahli Hospital said one man was killed in the airstrike near a vegetable market in the Shejaia suburb of Gaza City.

"There are still Hamas pockets in the areas under our control in Gaza, and we are systematically eliminating them," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said in broadcast remarks at the start of a cabinet meeting in Jerusalem.

Hamas released what it described as a list of violations of the ceasefire by Israel.
